Bantu at PLU Slates Minority Scholarship Benefit

A minority scholarship benefit and a special convocation featuring a nationally-known black evangelist will highlight the first annual Anniversary Extravaganza sponsored by Black Alliance Through Unity (BANTU) at Pacific Lutheran University later this month.

The benefit dinner, which will be held Friday, Sept. 28, at 6 pm in the University Center, is intended to raise funds for books and minority student scholarships. Proceeds will be applied to the PLU BERG Fund (Book fund, Emergency fund, Restricted minority student scholarships, and the General minority student grant fund).

Dr. J.L. Melvin, pastor of the Greater St. Mark's Church of Christ in Goldsboro, N.C., will be an honored dinner guest and the featured speaker at the black convocation, the latter to be held Sunday, Sept. 30, at 3 pm in Eastvold Auditorium.

Dr. Melvin is well-known, particularly in the East, as an effective moderate spokesman for the concerns of the nation's black population. He is active in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, NAACP, and the United Christian Missionary Society.

Also on the program are Rev. J.A. Bowes, St. John's Baptist, Tacoma; Rev. Robert Davis, Bethlehem Baptist, Tacoma; Rev. John Briehl, Spanaway Lutheran, Tacoma; PLU President Eugene Wiegman; Dr. Philip Beal, vice-president for student life at PLU; and Rev. Gordon Lathrop, PLU university minister.

Several Choirs, including PLU Voices of Unity, St. John's Voices of St. John, and Bethlehem's Gospel Chorus, will provide special music at the convocation.

BANTU was organized at PLU last year to develop and reinforce "black consciousness" and to further the relationship between blacks and whites on campus and in the community. Its membership is open to all PLU students.

Members of the community are cordially invited to attend the benefit dinner and convocation. For dinner reservations contact Harold Gamble, minority affairs coordinator, or Phillip Miner, admissions office.

Local Lass Accepted In Law School

Miss Beverly Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, 1705 So. Ainsworth, has been accepted into the University of Washington Law School. Miss Johnson, a 1969 graduate of Stadium High School and a former Daffodil Princess, received her B.A. degree in Political Science, March 1973, from the University of Washington. The 22 year old Beverly honor student in high school and the University will focus her studies on civil and corporate law.

Minority Contractor Profile

BY Ernie Altheimer

The main thrust of the Minority Contractors Pierce County Association Board of Directors program and implemented by MCPC staff is aimed at more contracts for minority contractors.

All MCPC Association activity---contractor training, staff training, contract, working capital, loan and bonding development exists solely to prepare minority contractors to gain their fair share in the construction industry.

Therefore, MCPC technical assistance programs, will only succeed when contract develop staff opens doors to additional contracts through contacts for MCPC members.

Throughout the country, in virtually every city, public, schools, freeways, streets and housing projects and some private projects have been located in the predominately minority community without minority contractors even being considered. (there are limited exceptions Seattle and pieces in Tacoma).

Construction contracting is a $180 billion dollar per year business; MCPC asks for one and one-half per cent (1½%) per year for minority contractors throughout the country. This equals to 2 billion 700 million dollars for the entire country and 25 million for Pierce County Minority Contractors. We trust that the community understands the urgent need for minority contractor and workmen participation within the greater Pierce County Area. The entire minority work force within Pierce County hardly exceed one million dollars annually. It will take unity and full cooperation to achieve the economic status required to attain a poverty free society for minorities. We all must mount an offense for profit!

Governors Cup Awarded

Clarence Walker III, Yannick Kieffert, Ronhld Archie pictured here, Weblo Scouts who won the Governor's Cup Award.

This year Governor Dan Evans is offering his support for scouting and is sponsoring a special award for all unit's and unit leader's who reach their unit recruitment goals. A "Governor's Mug" can be won by the leaders, and a streamer can be earned by the unit. Pack 210 of the First United Methodist Church have already reached their goal. Clarence R. Walker III left Yannick Kieffert and Ronald Archie are holding the mug and streamer. One more step for scouting in the Northwest Peninsula District No. 2. We are looking for all Packs and troops in the district to follow the example set by Pack 210.

Black Cultural Workshop News

The Black Cultural Workshop at McNeil Island Federal Penitentiary held their weekly "soul session" on Saturday, September 22, 1973. Brother Tayri was moderator, Brother Wendell Enix was the speaker and Brother Cecil Scott presented the current events. Members of outside BCW from Seattle and Tacoma were in attendance. Theme for the program was, "The Black Man and His Role in Family Life."

SHELTON--Shelton's BCW presented a film strip on Black Art and Music during the "Chapel Rap Session," last Sunday. Following the film the men engaged in open discussion, on how the knowledge of one's culture develops identity, the purpose and the direction needed to understand the Black perspective.

MONROE--The Black Cultural Workshop at Washington State Reformatory has elected new officers for the workshop. It is their custom to elect new officers every six months. This is done to give leadership training to a larger number of residents. Elected as staff officers were: Donald T. Holmes, Chairman; James Davis, Vice-chairman and Greg Carter, secretary.

Meetings are held each week on Friday - 6:00 p.m. thru 9:00 p.m. Outside guests are invited to attend the meetings, but prior clearance is needed. For information about the BCW, you may contact the Eastside Service Office., 593-2023

An Equal Opportunity Employer

Dear Tac-Vac

by: Ted Jefferson

Dear TAC VAC:

Q-- My August VA compensation check for a 30-percent peacetime service-connected disability was for the same amount as my buddy's for a 30-percent wartime disability. In the past, his checks have always been larger. How come we received the same amount in August?

A--Congress equalized the peacetime and wartime rates effective with the checks VA mailed in August.

Q--I am enrolled in a GI Bill correspondence course. VA says that if my entitlement runs out before I complete the course, the period of entitlement will be extended to the end of the course or for the additional amount of instruction that $616 will provide, whichever is less. How do they arrive at the $616 amount?

A--The monthly allowance rate of $220 is divided by 30 to determine the daily rate, which is then multiplied by 84 days (12 weeks) and raised to the even dollar.

Q--I am 18 years old and the son of a 60-percent disabled veteran. Am I eligible for dependents' educational bebefits from VA?

A--No. Only children of veterans who suffer permanent total disabilities or die from service-connected causes, or children of servicemen missing in action or prisoners of war for more than 90 days are eligible for educational bebefits.

Address all questions concerning veterans to: Tacoma Veterans Action Center; 1301 So. "K" Street, Tacoma, Washington 98495 383-4008.

Driver Education Classes To Begin

Driver training and traffic safety classes for adults are now open for enrollment at the L.H. Bates Vocational-Technical Institute.

The program will be conducted in the evenings at Lincoln High School and will consist of 30 classroom hours, 18 hours of observation and 6 hours of driving practice. There is a tuition of $37 for the course.

Students may enroll by contacting the Tacoma School District's adult educat ion office, FU3-1811, Ext. 217.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Navy's highest civilian award, the Distinguished Public Service Medal is pinned on former Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Manpower and Reserve Affairs) James E. Johnson by his wife Juanita as Secretary of the Navy John W. Warner and Johnson's daughter Vernea look on.

The ceremony took place at the Pentagon recently to recognize Johnson's "distinguished leadership and outstanding public service to the Navy from June 1971 to August 1973." The award praised Johnson for his personal devotion to improving the Navy's programs in such areas as equal opportunity, race relations, drug abuse, and the All Volunteer Force.

Support Bold Thrust

Bold Thrust is a self-help organization dedicated to the ideal of learning self-awareness and putting the responsibility of personal help back into the hands of the participant.

Bold Thrust has a membership of 60 with approximately 25 of these persons per week actively involved in group and private sessions.

If you are interested in learning more about how Bold Thrust works feel free to drop in any Friday morning at 10:00 at 5615 E. "M" St.

We are presently raising funds for operating expenses as Bold Thrust has no formal source of income and is functioning solely with volunteers; but we do need your help to meet expenses. To make your tax-deductible contribution call the Fund Raising Chairman, Ms. Vikki McChristian, at 272-1701.

Cassia No.5 Host Masonic

Prince Hall Day observance started with a Church Call at the Mount Calvery Baptist Church at 1311 South "I" Street. Masonic Bodies represented were: Cassia Lodge No. 5; Egyptian Lodge No. 44; Lee Grant Rogers Lodge No. 61; Hamma Hamma Lodge; Olympic Chapter No. 2, O.E.S.: Esta Chapter No. 27, O.E.S.; Faith Club O.E.S.; Herions of Jericho; Cascadian Consistory No. 75; Golden Circle No. 46; Yemen Temple No. 152; Yemen Court No. 12, and our Masonic Youth Group.

After the Church Call we journeyed to Spanaway Park for a Public Picnic which included a presentation by Right Worshipful Illustrious Sir Will Joe Davis, the Grand C.C. of F.C. of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of the State of Washington and its Jurisdiction. Highlights of the presentation were as follows:

"Prince Hall - Pioneer, Patriot, Christian, Statesman and Vigorous Advocate of Human Rights. It is appropriate that we give tribute to the illustrious personality whom the millions of Masons who bear his name, know as our eminent distinguished founder and patron.

A man of marvelous vision, courage, and faith. He stands out as a leader of great dimensions, his contributions to the cuase of civic righteousness and human betterment were outstanding and unique. He was an eloquent and persuasive platform speaker and a genius at the art of organizing. Because of his will power and determination, in the eighteenth century he pioneered in the area of civil rights for Afro-Americans. We should bear in mind that it was not only the Black leaders of the recent 60's, even though their contributions were many. The civil rights movement actually began under the leadership of such champions of human freedom as Frederick Douglass, Richard Allen Sojourner of Truth and Prince Hall. Hall was the first freemason of color of whom we have any record. He was a native of Barbados, West Indies. His Father was English, and his Mother was of French extraction. He was born on September 12, 1748. His trade was a leather worker. After acquiring property in Boston, Massachusetts, he was given the right to vote. He was a minister of the Methodist faith with a pastorate in Cambridge.

He and fourteen other free Blacks of Boston were made Master Masons in an Army lodge attached to General Gage's regiment stationed in Boston. Prince Hall petitioned the Grand Lodge of England for a warrant or charter, which was issued on September 29, 1787. By virtue of this charter, African Lodge No. 459 came into being four years later on June 24, 1791 through the formation of the African Grand Lodge with Prince Hall as Grand Master. Prince Hall's life expired in December, 1807, and on June 24, 1808 the name was changed to the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge Free and Accepted Masons. This great American who gave it birth, we honor as our first Grand Master."

In behalf of the District Deputy Grand Master for District No. 2, and the Worshipful Masters, we would like to thank you for making our Prince Hall Day observance a success. Clemon L. Modisett, District Deputy; Alonzo D. Foote, Sr., W.M. Cassia Lodge No. 5; Jesse T. Price, W.M. Egyptian Lodge; and Herbert Daily, W.M. Lee Grant Rogers Lodge No. 61.

Study Groups First Congregational Church

ANTHROPOLOGY AND RELIGION, COMPARATIVE RELIGIONS and HUMAN GROWTH and DEVELOPMENT are subject material for three study groups being formed this week at the First Congregational Church, Division and South J Streets.

ANTHROPOLOGY AND RELIGION will have its organizational meeting on Monday, September 24, in the Fireplace Room of the church at 7:30 pm. A University Freshman text at the freshman level, "Religion: An Anthropological View," by Anthony F. Wallace, Ph.D. of the University of Pennsylvania, will be used.

COMPARATIVE RELIGIONS and HUMAN GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT groups combined will meet on Thursday, September 27, at 7:30 pm in the Fireplace Room. A University text by Huston Smith, "The Religions of Man" will be used by the Comparative Religions study group. Dr. Smith is chairman of the Department of Religion andPhilosophy at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The text, "Religions, Values and Peak Experiences" by Abraham Maslow, Ph.D., used at all levels, will be used for "Human Growth and Development." Dr. Maslow was active in the Esalen Community in Big Sur, California, and a former chairman of the Department of Psychology of Brandeis University.

The study groups will be led by The Rev. William L. Edelen, minister of the First Congregational Church who, in addition to a degree in Botany and Theology, has two years of graduate Anthropology at the University of Colorado.

The first meetings are for the purpose of setting the most suitable day and time of meeting for the groups and are open to the public without charge. More information can be obtained by calling the church office.

SOULFUL ENTERTAINMENT REVIEW
BY R.O.

-----SOULFUL REPORTER returns this week-------sorry about last week----------

You local groups better get your "thang" together because BIG MAC THE WEE DO DJ is packing them in everywhere. He performed last Thursday at the Meridan Club in Bremerton, Wn. and the week-end at North Ft. Lewis Branch #3.

ASANTE did a fine job as always down at the Land of the Giants. MASTERPIECE put on a dynamic dance and show at Perl's in Bremerton, Wn. Saturday night. HOT ICE and JONAH's WHALE saw no action this weekend but we do hope JONAH'S WHALE a safe trip to Whidbey Island this week, they will return Sunday.

RON DACUS TRIO------will host a jam session at the Meridan Club in Bremerton, Wn. At the Officers'Club at Fort Lewis is the well-known LEROY FRANKLIN. All musicians and entertainers are welcome. The CARAVAN will leave 1801 So. 15 at 4:30 p.m. Get on board and lets have lots of fun: Call in your performance 627-8460 before Tuesday of each week. R.O. Laskey

The Keeper of the Keys

BY Andre Young

The state penitentiary at Walla Walla has on an average of 10-14 deaths each year, which can be attributed to murders, suicides, over-doses of narcotics; et cetera.

Because so many economically and otherwise disadvantaged persons are unabately being reduced to peonage and involuntary servitude, I am submitting the following advice from the American Civil Liberties Union.

How to deal with an arrest if you are questioned by a policeman:

1. You can remain silent, you do not have to answer any questions other than your name and address.
2. Ask if you are under arrest. If so, you have the right to know the charge against you. If not, you should be free to leave. However, never run away from a policeman.
3. Do not physically resist arrest. If the cop wants to search you, make it clear that you do not agree to the search. If searched, do not resist.

If You Are Arrested or Held

1. Never run away or physically resist arrest.
2. You have the right to remain silent; use it. Tell the policeman nothing except your name and address. Don 't try to give explanations or try to excuse your conduct.
3. If the police continue questioning you, ask to see a lawyer immediately. If you have been charged with a felony and cannot afford a lawyer you have the right to free legal services. Do not talk to officials unless your lawyer is present.
4. Whether or not the police have a warrant, you can protect your right against unlawful search by making it clear that you do not agree to a search. However, if the police persist--don't physically impede them.
5. If you are booked, sometime s you can be released without bail or have the bail reduced--ask the Judge about this. You have the right to go into Court the next Court day after you have been charged.

Don't make any decisions in your case until you have talked to a lawyer.

That accomplished during his best year on the pro tour, the Golden Bear now looks for two Classics in a row. There's plenty of incentive in the $50,000 first prize.

The 150 top touring professionals will stop for the Westchester Classic, Aug. 2-5, at the Westchester Country Club in Harrison, N.Y. Tour favorites and past champions Arnold Palmer, Bruce Crampton, Julius Boros and Frank Beard also will be on hand. The Hughes Sports Network will televise the last two days of play nationally.

As one of the tour's richest events, the Classic annually gives a percentage of its proceeds to six Westchester county hospitals. Over the past six years, it has donated more than $1.8 million to the fund.

Nicklaus dominated the 1972 Classic with rounds of 65-67-70-68--270. His 18-under par total left him three strokes in front of his nearest rival, Jim Colbert, who, although shooting a flawless 65 on the last day, wasn't able to catch the tour's all-time money winner.

You Did't n Vote? Greco's Outraged

Outraged and puzzled over a minuscule voter turnout Tuesday, County Auditor Richard Greco wants to change the election system.

He doesn't know how yet, but he asked Tacoma voters to write him about their ideas.

Or their reasons for not voting Tuesday, when only 18,000 of the city's 80,000 voters cast ballots.

"It's disheartening, it's outrageous, it's stupid," Greco fumed as his staff counted votes Tuesday night.

"I just don't understand it," he continued. "But I'll tell you--I want all those people who didn't vote to write and tell me why. Maybe we can find some way to change things so more people will vote.

"I don't know if we can accomplish that, but by God after tonight I'm sure willing to try."

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

This is an open letter in answer to your query as to why more citizens didn't vote. So many of us everyday voters have stopped looking for changes for the better from the political system. Last Tuesday's election is evidence that Washington voters are no different from other voters across the country when they, in effect, say, "why bother?"

Low voter turnout is not "disheartening"--what is disheartening is the fact that more people, especially politicians, will not face the true reason, ie, lack of significant enough accomplishments on the track records of all candidates nationwide, not lack of interest on the part of the voters.

Low voter turnout is not "outrageous"--what's outrageous is that it's taken people like you so long to become concerned.

Low voters who didn't turnout are not "stupid" we're just fed up.

Yes, Richard, there is a way to change the election system--tell your politicians to show us their accomplishments first; then we'll vote.

Sincerely,
Vikki McChristian, 724 S. L St., Tacoma
P.S. Don't blame Watergate, blame yourself.

'Covenant Players' To Be Hosted

As a part of the Churches' out-reach program to the community, the Church of the Holy Communion, at 1407 South "I" Street, will be offering a cultural program through the medium of the "COVENANT PLAYERS," an International Repertory Drama Group headquartered at Encino, California, on Wednesday, October 3rd. There will be three performances, with the 1st being presented at 2 o'clock in the Church sponsored Apartments for Senior Citizens, 1419 South "J" Street. The 2nd performance will be at 4 o'clock in the Hilltop Community Day Care Center. In the evening at 8 p.m., the last performance will be given in the Church. All performances are open to the public. There will be no admission, but donations will be appreciated.

This will be one of twenty-four units of the COVENANT PLAYERS in the field this year, whose journeys take them not only throughout the United States and Canada, but to Europe and Asia as well.

Using a variety of material, both humorous and serious, the Covenant Players use drama to challenge and stimulate people into a searching look at the complex society they live in, and the role they play in it.

Norton Sweet Retirement Party

Shelia dancing for her dad, "Never Can Say Goodby"

Mr. Sweet, Mrs. Sweet, Mr. Hank Henderson, past employer, Steward Wegener, Westmark Properties, broker, present employer

MR. NORTON SWEET was pleasantly surprized the 8th of September with a retirement party given by his family at the Ujamaa Club. His daughter SHELIA did an interpretive dance dedicated to her father. Among his many friends were MR. HANK HENDERSON, his past employer at Fort Lewis and his present co-worker at Westmark Properties, Inc.

Model Cities Elections Today

Advisory Association members will be voting in the Model Cities Executive Board elections today until 7:30 p.m.

All members of the association are encouraged to go to McCarver School or the County-City Building tonight before the polls close.

Seven candidates are running for four Model Neighborhood resident positions. The six candidates who filed are Madeline House, James C. Nash, Louis Scott, Doris Shaw, Joan Waller, and Nora L. Walker. Frank Bennett is running as a write-in candidate.

Two non-residents are running for the non-resident positions. They are Jonabea Wilson and Johnnie Whitfield.

At 7:30 tonight, the Advisory Association will hold its annual meeting in the City Council Chambers of the County-City Building.

The agenda includes reports from the Executive Board Chairman, Task Force Chairman, and Model Cities Director. The results of the election will be announced after the reports. Mayor Gordon N. Johnston may be present to install the newly elected board members.

Fire Prevention Week

People cause most fires, and people can prevent most fires. Last year $2.9 billion was lost to fires by people's carelessness. Don't depend on the other fellow to stop fires. The job is yours. Wake up to Fire Prevention Week, October 7 through 13.

Jack be nimble, Jack be quick, Jack threw his Donkey, Fred, over the candle stick and got his...fingers burnt? What are you doing for Fire Prevention Week?

Help stamp out fires! The Washington Insurance Council says to take a cigarette smoker to a steam bath during Fire Prevention Week, October 7-13.

ADVISORY ASSOCIATION MEETING

Sept. 27, 7:30 p.m.

City Council Chambers

Join us tonight at the annual Advisory Association meeting in the City Council Chambers of the County-City Building (third floor). The meeting will be held in conjunction with the regular Executive Board meeting. Winners of the Executive Board election will be announced if the returns are available.

NEIGHBORS IN THE NEWS

John Fischer has been appointed Chairman of the Business Division of Fort Steilacoom Community College, according to Dr. Paul Blowers, Executive Dean/Instruction.

In appointing Fischer, Dr. Blowers noted Fischer's proven leadership at FSCC. "He has shown his ability in educational organization, direction and instruction," said Blowers.

Fischer joined FSCC two years ago as instructor/coordinator in Mid-Management. He developed the Fashion Merchandising Occupational program which was started one year ago.

"Fashion Merchandising students were in high demand even without completing the two-year program," Blowers said. "The college has had many calls throughout the summer from businesses wishing to employ the students."

"Under Fischer's leadership, the Business Division should continue to be a strong and large part of the vocational education offering at FSCC," Blowers said.

NOW, IF YOU ARE EVER ASSAULTED
STOP ATTACKERS INSTANTLY
EASY TO USE, EFFECTIVE—YET SAFE!

The Police Department of one of the larger cities in the country specifically recommends carrying chemical spray devices for self-defense against attackers.

- SHERIFF .50 contains a proven chemical formula. Renders attackers harmless up to 15 minutes. SAFE! Will not cause permanent injury.
- Contains NO Mace, NO tear gas, NO explosives.
- Can be discharged (up to 50 bursts) — even repeatedly.
- Compact. Fits neatly in hand, pocket or purse.
- Special safety discharge nozzle directs spray where desired. Can be aimed even in the dark.
- Be Prepared. Keep SHERIFF .50 handy wherever you work, travel, live or play. Keeps you Free From Fear!

YOUNG GIRL CAPTURES RAPIST
While waiting for a bus, a young attractive girl was grabbed from behind and dragged into an alley. As her assailant tried to rip her dress off, she fired one burst at his face. Instantly he let her go and staggered around blindly, coughing and gasping. He later confessed to raping over a dozen women in the area. This girl and possibly others were saved from a vicious sexual attack.

Food For Thought

BY Mrs. G. M. Batie

Macaroni, rice, spaghetti and noodles--they are all economical, tasty and make your casserole go further. Use equal amounts of meat with these starchy extenders for real taste appeal. Add your seasonings and you have a real perky flavor.

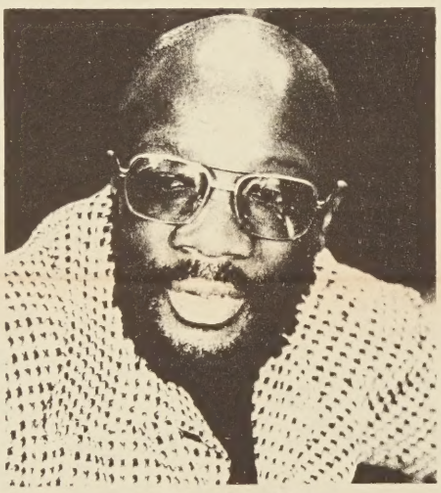
Speaking of seasonings--for casseroles, you have a variety. Experiment with different ones--mashed garlic, lemon juice, mustard, chili sauce, tomato sauce, parsley, tomato paste.

SOUTHERN STYLE MACARONI

1 lb. ground meat
½ lb. bacon, diced
1 large onion, finely cut
1 med. green pepper, finely cut
1 tsp salt
black pepper to taste
1 lb. can red beans, drained
1 lb. can peas drained
1 lb. can tomatoes
1 - 12oz pkg, shell macaroni, cooked
¼ lb. American cheese cubed.

Brown beef and bacon; drain excess fat. Add onions and green pepper. Add beans and peas, tomatoes and macaroni; pour into large casserole or baking dish. Sprinkle cheese over top. Bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes or until entire surface is bubbly and cheese is melted. Yields 15 to 20 servings.

'Black Moses' Gets A $45,000 'Hog'



ISAAC 'BLACK MOSES' HAYES

HOLLYWOOD — Entertainer Isaac Hayes bought his eighth automobile last week, a custom-made Cadillac limousine costing $45,000. Hayes' newest car was cut in half at the factory so the body could be lengthened.

The musician's new chariot includes a wrap-around love seat in the passenger compartment, a closed circuit TV set between passenger and driver, telephone system, bar, refrigerator, and quadraphonic sound system. Hayes said it's roomier than his $35,000 Rolls-Royce, another recent purchase.

Miss Ruby Dee, actress, who was initiated into honorary membership at Delta Sigma Theta's 32nd Nat'l Convention is pictured giving a poetry reading in the tribute to Black Women she made at one of the plenary sessions.

Candidate Forum

The Tacoma Urban League's Citizenship Education Project is sponsoring a non-partisan candidate forum at 7 p.m., October 4, at the Jason Lee Junior High auditorium, 6th and Sprague St. Candidates for school board will discuss their views on bussing. If you need transportation or more information, call 474-0501.

Nalley in the Chips

Mr. George M. Nalley, Candidate for Mayor of Tacoma, could hardly believe his ears Wednesday morning, the day after the primary election. The radio announcer had just reported his successful win in Tacoma's primary, but in closing, he stated that Nalley was a distant relative of Tacoma's potato chip King. The candidates' statement, "How close can I get? Marcus Nalley was my father!" seems to answer the Associated Press inaccuracy.
